

The Ad Clerum – June 2017

Archdeacon Tim Mora (Vicar-General) shares his thoughts on Moral Courage.

Moral Courage

Moral courage is defined as the courage to take action for moral reasons despite the risk of adverse consequences. I was hopeful after what seemed like a positive presentation at the Grey District Council's Annual Plan that the council would demonstrate this moral courage and leadership by accepting our submission and taking the small step of investigating the cost of instituting the Living wage across its workforce. Not implementing, just investigating the cost so as to be able to make an informed decision. Sadly I was to be disappointed.

An email arrived telling me the Council had declined the request to research paying the living wage on the basis that it is not a local government function to be directly involved in determining and setting minimum wage amounts noting that current remuneration is set at a market related level. I guess no one told the Wellington and Lower Hut councils this when they implemented it nor Christchurch, Auckland and Nelson who are considering it. Furthermore market forces based on supply and demand and profit are not the best arbiter of determining remuneration. Hence the Government setting a minimum wage so as to ensure workers are paid at least something. Without that legislation I would hate to see what remuneration levels would be in our society. We were not asking the council to determine minimum wage levels just asking that they consider paying wages at a rate that enables families to live. This is in their power to do and given the increasing levels of homelessness, poverty, the inability to afford your own home and children who are going hungry; missing out on school trips, appropriate clothing and more within our community. I would have thought Council would have leapt at this opportunity to demonstrate moral courage and leadership.

The facts that I presented to Council were clear. A family of four on 40hours at the minimum wage including Working for families would have $9/week left over after basic costs like rent, food, phone, car, contents insurance, wood and coal and the occasional Dr's visit. That's $9/week to buy clothes, bed linen, towels, shoes, school fees, uniform costs, rent a dvd once a fortnight, buy petrol for the lawnmower, have a coffee in town occasionally, go to the movies, buy take-aways once in a while, pay sports club fees and sports gear if needed, buy a paper or magazine subscription, pay bank fees, replace the tires on your car and so on and so on. $9/week! It's impossible. The Living Wage has been estimated to be $20.20/hour. That extra $4.45 will give that family an extra $159.31 after tax a week which still isn't a lot but just maybe they can afford a few unexpected bills now, school fees and clothes and shoes for the children.

And please understand that this is not just an altruistic step. It's an economic one as well. Where the living wage has been implemented employers will tell you they have benefited from less absenteeism and sick days, more loyalty and increased productivity and cost savings from staff induction and training. And let's be honest even on the living wage people aren't going to be saving much. Every extra dollar they earn is going to be spent right here in our district. Our businesses will benefit as well. The living wage is a win win situation for any community.

A fair and just society is one where everyone has the ability to earn enough to feed their families, put a roof over their heads, and to enjoy the good things that life has to offer. And I don't just mean subsistence living where you earn enough to scrape by but rather where you earn enough to live, to take your family on holidays, give your children treats and take your spouse out to dinner once in a while. Surviving is not living and a fair and just society is not one where everyone prospers.

Well done Wellington City Council and Lower Hutt for your moral courage and leadership. Well done Auckland, Christchurch and Nelson who are considering it.

If it had cost me an extra $20/year in my rates that wouldn't have been a problem. Sadly the Grey District Council didn't even give me that opportunity to consider or debate that possibility with my fellow ratepayers which was all we were asking. We will be back next year to press council again.

As Christians we are a part of society and live within communities where we are the ones who often get to see just how hard people are struggling. I believe we have a responsibility to speak out at times as our national church has done to Parliament on key issues. I share this by way of example of how even at the local level we can speak out and in time prevail. Remember it took William Wilberforce 21 years and countless bills to Parliament before he was eventually successful.

MINISTRY EDUCATION

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

" IN TIMES OF CHANGE, LEARNERS INHERIT THE EARTH, WHILE THE LEARNED FIND THEMSELVES BEAUTIFULLY EQUIPPED TO DEAL WITH A WORLD THAT NO LONGER EXISTS" (Hans Finzel, in George Barna, Leaders on Leadership, Regal Books, 1997, 271)

EQUIP MINISTRY EDUCATION

For this year EQUIP is going to run a little differently. Rather than 3 Saturdays in each region, EQUIP is going to have a focus month in each region so that in that month, 4 evening sessions will be held on the topics of

- The Big Story of the Bible
- Handling the Bible

These would be great events post-ALPHA, for home groups, and for training new leaders.

I'm aware that several parishes are focusing on ALPHA in the first part of the year, so we try and plan the events to avoid ALPHA. Now is a good time to think of those you want to get involved in training in 2017 or if BTC can tailor-make some training for your parish/region.

POST ORDINATION MINISTRY DEVELOPMENT (POMD):

Post Ordination Ministry Development (POMD) is a 3-year programme for those newly ordained (and if required those new to the Diocese), and is a requirement of your ordination and Bishop's license. The aim of POMD is to cover ministry competencies for your current and future ministry and to build collegiality as a group.

The current POMD process is 2-fold. First, participation in a Community of Practice (replaces or sits alongside regional deanery meetings).

Pattern	Mawhera 1st Fri	Nelson 1st Thr (Grp 2)	Waimea 1st Thr	Marlborough 3rd Thr

September		(13)	7	21
October	13	5
November		23 (8)	2	16
December	1

The second part is new for 2017 and replaces the previous POMD model of meeting 1 day a month. The plan is to meet three times each year; 2 one-day meetings, and 1 two-day meeting (Marae visit or Bishop's retreat). The aim for each day will be to discuss 2 ministry competencies. Please note a change to FRIDAY to enable everyone to be there. May and August events will be held in Blenheim (Nelson Folks hopefully we can carpool).

Suggested dates (venue to be confirmed):

- May 23: Please purchase and read Chuck Collins, Reformation Anglicanism: Biblical, Generous, Beautiful (Newport Beach: Anglican House Publishers, 2014). This is a clear and easy-to-read description of Anglican DNA and a must read for clergy and anyone wanting to know what does being Anglican mean. We will frame our discussion on celebrating Communion around this. The second topic will be either "Executing" or "Building teams" (both relating to "Leadership") from the recent Willowcreek GLS DVD.
- AUG 11 (FRIDAY)
- NOV 9-10 (THR-FRI)

Prior to becoming Dean in 2016, Kanishka served as Rector of St Matthew's in Perth. He is married to Cailey and they have two daughters. Our two internship options are:

- James K.A. Smith, You are what you love: The spiritual power of habit (Brazos, 2016). A Quote:
"If worship is formative, not merely expressive, then we need to be conscious and intentional about the form of worship that is forming us. This has one more important implication: When you unhook worship from mere expression, it also completely retools your understanding of repetition. If you think of worship as a bottom-up, expressive endeavor, repetition will seem insincere and inauthentic. But when you see worship as an invitation to a top-down encounter in which God is refashioning your deepest habits, then repetition looks very different: it's how God rehabilitates us. In a formational paradigm, repetition isn't insincere, because you're not showing, you're submitting. This is crucial because there is no formation without repetition. Virtue formation takes practice, and there is no practice that isn't repetitive."

SOCIAL SERVICES ENABLER

Dear everyone, Having just come from a meeting of the Anglican Care Network www.anglicancarenetwork.org.nz serves to remind me that we are indeed fortunate to be a part of the large number of Anglican agencies and parish-based social services in Aotearoa. From the very large and publicly-profiled City Missions in Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch as well as the Selwyn Foundation and Anglican Trust for Women and Children in Auckland to Anglican Family Care in Dunedin, Te Ara Hou in Hamilton and Anglican Care Community Development in Christchurch to our own parish outreach ministries in Nelson Diocese and recognising there are many, many more in between. There is a renewed call for us to qualify and quantify where our Church's social investment is 'located' and for us to be less reticent about this in the public space. It is no easy task – I have made an attempt already to try and do this in our patch, however it may be that now a research contract from the Network will be commissioned to gather the data – for ourselves and the provincial Church as well as NZ Council of Christian Social Services with whom we partner with two representatives on the Council. Lively discussion on such topics as adaptive leadership, social investment (actuarial) vs social commitment (wellbeing) and current social justice issues filled an informative and stimulating 2 days. I invite you to also check out www.nzccss.org.nz

Blessings
Gerrie

ENABLER FOR OLDER PERSONS MINISTRY

Dear friends,

By the time you read this it will have been announced that I am retiring from my role as Enabler effective on 31st July. It has been a privilege to serve God in this ministry and to meet so many more wonderful people around our diocese.

This month I will be celebrating the 40th anniversary of my ordination as a Deacon in Liverpool, UK, by Bishop David Sheppard and his three episcopal colleagues. I knew that I was called to ministry from my childhood and I am so pleased and privileged to have fulfilled that calling in three different parishes in the UK, then as Canon in Wellington Cathedral before becoming Dean of Nelson in 1994. I still believe that the ordained ministry is the best job in the world. I am looking forward to celebrating the Eucharist at Nelson Cathedral on June 25th to mark my anniversary.

May I remind you that June 15th is World Elder Abuse Day? Please remember this day by working to care for vulnerable older people in your parishes. In a recent communication to all of our eldercare ministry leaders I included this prayer which I had written:

Heavenly Father,
Your son taught us how to love, sacrificially,
and never to exploit the weak and vulnerable.
We pray for older people who are the victims of abuse and who feel lost and hurt and helpless as a result.
Help us to listen to the cries of older people in need and to respond with the protective love that is sourced in you.
May our families and communities learn to cherish people of all ages and to learn from those who have much to share.
We ask this in the name of the devoted son,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please feel free to use the prayer in your services and gatherings.

Best wishes,

Charles Tyrrell QSO

Graham Tomlin – The seven deadly sins : how to overcome life’s most toxic habits. Oxford : Lion, c2014.

Tomlin investigates the seven sins and considers them the “seven habits of highly destructive people”. Sin shames us and isolates us from each other and from God. Sin distorts, corrupts and parodies what is good and unravels our lives. Tomlin asserts that for all its attraction, sin is “nowhere near as powerful and attractive as goodness”. He explores how the Christian faith offers resources to overcome these destructive habits and build good ones that keep us spiritually fit.

Simon Ponsonby – The pursuit of the Holy : a divine invitation. Colorado Springs, CO : David C Cook, c2010.

“Be holy as I am holy,” says the Lord. Ponsonby affirms that God longs “for union with us” and that “his provision of grace to us, and our passionate pursuit after holiness” will get us on the journey of holiness. As we move “toward personal holiness, the Church will become holy, and a holy church will change the world”.
