

Anglican Care Committee Trust Fund Criteria

Whakarewa and Whareama Trust

- There are 3 opportunities to apply for funding. Applications must be received by 1 February, 1 June or 1 October for consideration in the upcoming funding round
- The ACC will give wide consideration to the need for funding to benefit the social services work of the Anglican Church in the Diocese of Nelson
- New and innovative projects are encouraged
- Projects/programmes that provide a “help up” are likely to be favoured
- Projects/programmes are generally parish-based, but this is not compulsory
- Projects/programmes can benefit any/all people, regardless of age, values, religion, gender, etc.
- Project/programme may be finite or ongoing
- Evaluation of community needs in planning is encouraged
- No large capital items or building expenses will be funded
- Employees are the responsibility of the applicant and funding is a contribution only to costs, including salary
- All involved in service delivery in the Diocese must be police checked and comply with SafeHere
- Applicants must plan to increase their own financial support of project/programme over time and/or seek alternative funding

Baigent Trust

- John & Hazel Baigent Trust applications are for individuals aged over 60, for the relief of poverty and sickness, or for housing needs or other charitable purposes. (Diocesan) Applications are accepted at any time

Godwin Trust

- Godwin Trust applications are for the charitable work of caring for children and other charitable purposes (Diocesan).
This is a fund with limited resource and applications are accepted at any time. Please refer to the Social Services Enabler.

Mary Foster-Barham Trust

Mary Foster-Barham Trust applications are for the care of elderly and children in a disadvantaged position within the Nelson and Richmond municipal boundaries.

This fund is divided up in 2 parts:

1. Applications from parishes and/or community agencies for individuals and families.
These will be accepted at any time.
2. Project funds (annual applications) - For 2019 applications are due by 1st August
- Applications include a written application and a short presentation to Trustees

Anglican Care Committee Trust Fund Criteria

Older Persons Ministry Fund (OPMF)

- For the care of older persons over the age of 65, with discretion to include those over 50 if their needs align with those over 65
- Applications for contestable funding are normally received by 1 August (2019 is 1 May)
- Applications for non-contestable funding may be received at any time
- The Anglican Church must be involved in the governance of the project/programme
- Applicants are encouraged to consult with neighbouring parishes over the possibility of a joint project/programme, especially if they are in close proximity
- Projects/programmes must be community facing and in response to community needs identified through consultation within the community
- Paid employees must intentionally encourage a voluntary team to work alongside them
- Capital works not considered for funding unless extenuating circumstances
- All involved in service delivery in the Diocese must be police checked and comply with SafeHere
- Employees are the responsibility of the parish and funding is a contribution only to costs, including salary, but the ACCT will consider the need for continuity of funding for up to 3 years where workers are employed
- Parishes must plan to increase their own financial support of project/programme over time and/or seek alternative funding
- No new or ongoing funds are granted if applications or accountability reports contain insufficient information or evidence of effectiveness to support a grant

Tindall Foundation

The Tindall Foundation makes available annual funding which is managed by the Anglican Care Network (ACN), www.anglicancarenetwork.org.nz

This is a Tikanga Pakeha Anglican Church national network of Agencies, Parishes and Diocesan Social Services in New Zealand which allocates the fund to be shared in equal parts between 7 Tikanga Pakeha Dioceses and 3 City Missions.
